

SWIM THIS

Nick Didkovsky, Gerry Hemingway, Michael Lytle

Swim This is a new trio that spontaneously generates a world of intensely focused and evocative improvised music. The group creates a visceral and deep listening experience where no moment is lost, and each sound is projected with maximum momentum and razor sharp clarity.

New CD on Punos Music

Swim This began with the initiative of Michael Lytle, who invited Didkovsky and Hemingway to perform at The Experimental Intermedia Foundation in 2006. The evening's extraordinary performance was recorded with meticulous care, and later mixed and produced by Didkovsky at Punos Music Studios. The result is a new CD entitled "Swim This" (Punos Music, PM0006).

Personnel

Nick Didkovsky – table top guitar and homebrew software

Gerry Hemingway – drums, voice with occasional processing

Michael Lytle – bass and contrabass clarinet, prerecorded tape

Booking: Michael Lytle, elewhale@earthlink.net

CD ordering info: Nick Didkovsky, nick@didkovsky.com

Website: <http://www.punosmusic.com/swimthis>